Thirty Best Places to Work in Oklahoma are announced for 2007

Oklahoma City, Okla. - Best Companies Group is pleased to announce the winners of the “2007 Best Places to Work in Oklahoma.” This exciting initiative is dedicated to finding and recognizing Oklahoma’s best employers. The selection analysis was conducted by Modern Think LLC, a workplace excellence consulting firm, and was based on collected data and internal employee surveys. This statewide competition sets out to motivate local workplace environments toward excellence.

Best Companies Group and OKCBusiness, Central Oklahoma’s Business News in Print & Online, are partnering with Oklahoma HR Council, The State Chamber, Career Tech, Oklahoma Center for Nonprofits, Greater Oklahoma City Chamber of Commerce and Oklahoma Department of Commerce to conduct the annual program.

Thirty winners were selected this year, representing both medium-sized companies of 25 up to 249 employees and large-sized companies of 250 employees or more. The 2007 winners are attached. Rankings of the winners in each category will be released at a gala awards dinner on May 3 at the historic Skirvin Hilton in Oklahoma City. OKCBusiness will publish a special commemorative magazine with statewide circulation featuring the companies in early May.

Winners are listed in alphabetical order. Rankings within categories will be announced at a May 3, 2007 gala awards dinner at Oklahoma City's Skirvin Hilton.
