JOHN MURRAY APPOINTED DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS OF REVENUE RESCUE/INTERMEDIX

Fort Lauderdale, FL - Intermedix Corporation, the leading provider of technology-based business services to America's safety net of emergency providers, today announced the appointment of Mr. John Murray to the role of Director of Operations of Revenue Rescue. In his new role, Mr. Murray will lead Revenue Rescue/Intermedix's operational efforts as the Company builds on its expertise in technology-based, fire response cost recovery services.

Intermedix COO, Ken Cooke, said "John has been instrumental in developing our innovative Revenue Rescue technology platform and is a leading expert in fire response cost recovery management. We are extremely pleased to have him join us at this important and dynamic time in our history. The addition of John to the management team continues our tradition of recruiting technology savvy executives to leading roles in our organization."

Mr. Murray has more than 15 years of involvement with Emergency Services. Prior to joining Revenue Rescue/Intermedix, Mr. Murray operated as Vice President of Development for a company producing mobile electronic patient care reporting systems. He has a strong technology background including working as a development lead focused on consumer authentication and security for a major computer manufacturer, and operating his own independent technology consulting business. John is certified as a Texas EMT-B and continues to work as a volunteer Fire Fighter.

Mr. Murray is based in Round Rock, Texas. He can be reached at 877-524-8182 ext 402 or jmurray@revenue-rescue.com.
